

NAVAJO WEBSITES

<http://hanksville.org/NAresources/>

WWW Virtual Library - American Indians

Index of Native American Resources on the Internet

This site has a wealth of information with links to almost anything you could think of having to do with Native Americans-history, education, art and music, museums, books, bibliographies, government, and links to individual native groups, including the Navajo.

<http://inkido.indiana.edu/w310work/romac/swest.htm>

Created by Pam Eck, IUPUI, 4/22/98

This site includes information about Native Americans of the southwest United States including the Navajo, Apache, Hopi, Pueblo and Zuni tribes. Areas of interest include art, food, religion, children, vocabulary, and legends of the culture. This would be a good site if you want to compare different groups of the southwest region.

<http://coe.west.asu.edu/students/stennille/ST3/navajos2.html#index>

Navajo Resources, created by Stephanie Tennille, Technology Teacher. Update 6/2/03

This site includes numerous links to Navajo cultural information including art, music, food, Navajo symbols, celebrations, famous people, folktales and legends, poetry, children's books, and much more.

<http://www.history.navy.mil/faqs/faq61-2.htm>

Navajo Code Talkers: World War Two Fact Sheet; Prepared by Navy and Marine Corps WW II Commemorative Committee.

Dept. of the Navy, Naval Historical Center, Washington, D.C.

This site provides information about the Navajo Code Talkers of WW II. It includes links to a bibliography and dictionary of the code.

<http://www.lapahie.com/>

Harrison Lapahie, Jr.

Mr. Lapahie's site includes information on Lapahie's family genealogy, the culture and history of the Navajo, links to Navajo newspapers, and links to Internet sites of possible interest. He provides a lot of information and an example of traditional Navajo music.

<http://www.navajo.org/>

Official Website of the Navajo Nation

The Navajo Nation's official Website provides lists of and links to press releases for 2003, employment opportunities, links to Navajo Nation Washington Office and legislative news, and divisions such as education, health, social services, natural resources, etc. This would be a good site to look for current news from the Navajo Nation.

<http://www.americana.net/index.html>

This site includes links to information about sand painting, weaving, kachinas, potters, and other native art forms.

<http://www.geocities.com/Baja/Dunes/2319/native.html>

Betsy Tso, Traditional Navajo

This site provides links to information on Navajo land disputes, genocide of Native Americans, Navajo-Hopi land dispute, WW II Navajo code talkers, and more.

<http://www.canyonart.com/sandrugs.htm>

Canyon Country Originals

Although a commercial site, this site provides information about Navajo sand painting, textiles, healing ceremonies, and chants.

Scroll down the page to find links to Navajo schools K-12. Check out the link to "Teaching and Learning with Native Americans."

<http://www.hanksville.org/NAresources/NAsearch.php?whichName=&whichstate=&whichCountry=&whichtribe=navajo>

Navajo Creation Story - Project for Children

http://www.internet-at-work.com/hos_mcgrane/navajo/navajo_index.html

Teach your children about Navajo Culture—Amazon books:

http://www.amazon.com/gp/richpub/syltguides/fullview/EJXU2M8ZG8OB?ie=UTF8&Version=1&entries=0

Native American Ways of Learning: A Profile of a Navajo Teacher (pdf):

<http://www.strom.clemson.edu/teams/literacy/litpubs/navajoways.pdf#search=%22navajo%20culture%20for%20children%22>

or view as HTML

<http://64.233.187.104/search?q=cache:5zKFt4H4JyAJ:www.strom.clemson.edu/teams/literacy/litpubs/navajoways.pdf+navajo+culture+for+children&hl=en&gl=us&ct=clnk&cd=8>

Native American Lesson Plan (i.e. Navajo) for grades 3, 4 and 5

<http://www.instructorweb.com/lesson/nativeamerican.asp>

Learning about the Navajo Lesson Plan grades 3 - 5

<http://www.lessonplanspage.com/SSLAArtNativeNavajo-Culture35.htm>

Global Diversity through Literature Activity (integrates math, science, technology, etc.)

<http://www.lessonplanspage.com/SSLAArtNativeNavajo-Culture35.htm>

Cultural Diversity and Early Education—a short essay

<http://www.nap.edu/readingroom/books/earlyed/chapter3.html>

Indian Mascots Affect More than Sports—an article

http://www.maynardije.org/columns/guests/020625_tapahe/