

Navajo Winter Stories

WHEN: SUNDAY, January 28, 2018 at 5:00 pm

WHERE: Adopt-A-Native-Elder
328 West Gregson Ave.
Salt Lake City, UT 84115

PHONE: 801-474-0535

Harry James sings Navajo songs

It's Pot-luck: Please bring a food item to share!

Winter Stories, games, and songs are shared between the Navajo during the cold months when people stay indoors more. Native dances, drumming and traditional Navajo singing will be performed.

Traditional Native American dances

Julius Chaves shares Native traditions

Everyone is welcome to join us for this free, family-friendly evening of Navajo culture, stories, music and good food!

Emerson Bill and the Cliff Eagle Singers

Rodger Williams tells traditional stories

Eileen Quintana tells stories relating to Navajo culture

To learn more about the Adopt-A-Native-Elder Program, visit us online at: www.AnElder.org